

2012 MACS Fine Arts Results

On Friday, March 23, 2012, a handful of HCS students in the elementary grades attended the annual Maryland Association of Christian School's Speech and Academic Festival. We are delighted to share the festival results by student name and category. Great job HCS students!

MACS Elementary Project/Academic State Results

March 2012

Bible Memory

Sage Thorpe – 1st place primary

Max Henderson – 2nd place primary

Olivia Kelley – 1st place intermediate

History

Noah Olinger – 1st place in primary

Joey McKnight – 4th place in primary

Philip Serrell – 1st place in intermediate

Rebekah Olinger – 2nd place in intermediate

Science

Emma Blomily – 3rd place in primary

Todd Garner – 4th place in primary

Warren Englehart – 1st place in intermediate

Trevor Prevost – 2nd place in intermediate

Art

Brayden Stagnoli – 2nd place in primary mixed media

Johnny Truman – 3rd place intermediate photography

Dallas Kane – 3rd place intermediate mixed media

Chase Ruby – excellent craftsmanship award intermediate art

Speech

Readers Theatre – 2nd place

Natalie Moser – 2nd place intermediate poetry

Creative Writing

Ella Holbrook – 1st place 1st grade poetry

Todd Garner – 1st place primary poetry

Abigail Coomes – 2nd place primary narrative

Olivia Kelley – 2nd place intermediate poetry